Product Summary

MVP Kids is packed with plant-based multivitamins, plus pure plant protein for optimal absorption and a natural boost. Your child's body is designed to extract vitamins and minerals from food. Those synthetic multi-vitamin and multi-mineral supplements with the cartoon characters (and the artificial colors and flavors) don't get absorbed and utilized like the numbers might suggest on the label. In fact, there are some ingredients that may do more harm than good.

The world's ONLY organic multi-vitamin + protein drink

10 grams of pure protein

Natural boost from 22 whole food vitamins

USDA Organic Certified and 100% non-GMO

Great chocolate taste

Servings per container: 30

Product Description

PLANT POWER

MVP Kids is packed with plant-based vitamins, plus plant-powered protein for optimal absorption and all-day energy. Your child's body is designed to extract vitamins and minerals from food. Those synthetic multi-vitamin and multi-mineral supplements with the cartoon characters (and the artificial colors and flavors) don't get absorbed and utilized like the numbers might suggest on the label. In fact, there are some studies that say they may do more harm than good.

"Moringa and Amla berry, spinach, basil, and parsley, lichen and shiitake, hummingbird tree flower, curry, and tea leaves combined with lemon peel and achiote, this proprietary blend is packed full of exotic herbs, flowers, mushrooms, fruits, and vegetables that are highly nutritious for kids of all ages." - David Sandoval
